

Alpine News

The youngest child of Bishop Jas. W. Vance met with a painful accident Saturday evening which resulted in his arm being broken at the elbow. He was taken to Lehi where an X-ray picture of the arm was taken.

Pres. Guy Wilson of the L. D. S. University delivered a very eloquent address Sunday afternoon in the ward house on "Duties of Parents to Children," and "Our Attitudes Towards Affairs of Life."

Miss Dora Burgess was visiting her parents Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Burgess.

Mrs. Hugh Peterson of Heber City is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Strong.

While Mr. Geo. E. Burgess was on his way to Am. Fork after a load of pipe, for the City water system, his team became unmanageable and ran away, throwing him from the wagon.

He received a severe scalp wound which required 24 stitches to close.

Ernest Clark left for the desert Monday.

It is reported that Mrs. D. C. Strong, Jr., who is at the L. D. S. hospital is getting along nicely and is expected home Friday.

Among those who attended the funeral services of Judge J. E. Booth at Provo, were T. C. Clark, J. E. Moyie, D. J. Strong and wife, Jas. F. Marsh and wife and D. C. Strong, Sr.

Mr. Samuel R. Brown of Salt Lake was visiting here Monday.

The schools enjoyed a pleasant social Friday afternoon. The afternoon was spent in dancing, after which refreshments were served.

"THE MIRACLE MAN"
RANKS WITH GREAT
FILM MASTERPIECES

Big Story in George Loane Tucker Production Will Grip Audience.

Published originally as a novel in Munsey's Magazine, written by Frank matized by George Loane Tucker's production. "The Miracle Man," comes to the REALART THEATRE on WEDNESDAY and THURSDAY, APRIL 7 and 8. As a Paramount-Attercraft picture this absorbing story has been hailed by the critics as one of the finest productions ever seen on the screen. With scenes laid in the haunts of criminals in New York's Chinatown, in a little village on the side of a giant mountain and on the shore of a roaring ocean, the opportunity for wonderful photographic effects has been realized to the limit.

But the chief interest is in the striking story, which centers about the venerable figure of an old patriarch, who is credited with the power to heal the sick and make crippled limbs whole again. To him comes Tom Burke and his band of crooks from New York's Chinatown with the idea of cashing in on his powers. But it doesn't work out as they calculated, for hidden away in each of them is a leaven of good, which slowly comes to the surface under the influence of their wholesome environment. In a most marvelous way the criminals are reclaimed from the paths of crime.

A cast of unusual ability enacts the important roles in the picture, headed by Thomas Meighan, a well known leading man, and including Elinor Fair, Betty Compson, Joseph J. Dowling, Lon Chaney, W. Lawson Butts, J. M. Dumont, Lucile Hutton, and F. A. Turner.
